SUBJECT: PRO-DADIS MOVEMENT PLANS PROTEST IN FRONT OF U.S.
EMBASSY

REF: CONAKRY 0493

11. (U) The MDDR, Movement for Dadis to Stay, issued a communique on August 26 announcing the group's intent to stage a protest in front of the U.S. Embassy on Sunday, August 30, beginning 10:00 AM. The protest is in response to the USG's August 20 press release, which commented on Guinea's elections (reftel). Calling upon Guinea's patriots to protect the national sovereignty of Guinea, the MDDR denounced the USG's message using words such as neocolonialism and imperialism.

COMMENT

12. (SBU) Embassy anticipates no changes in our overall security posture although post will increase Local Guard Force staffing and request stepped up patrols by the local police (BAC) unit. The protest is currently scheduled for Sunday, a day that the Embassy is closed. RSO will be monitoring the situation. END COMMENT.
